

Choral Teachers Pass Royal South Street Society 2011

We are delighted that your choir will be singing at Royal South Street in September.

Prior to (time permitting), and at the conclusion of your performance choristers are expected to sit in the auditorium to enjoy other performances. You are welcome to enjoy all sections in the session during which you are competing.

Appropriate staff passes will be prepared for accompanying staff and these can be collected on your arrival under your choir's or school's name from the "welcomer" at the stage door at the rear of the theatre (NOT from the office). Please remember to ask for them.

To avoid embarrassment, it is essential you complete and return the form below by, Friday 19th August 2011.

Yours sincerely,

Michael Stewart
